

Race and Equity Pocket Questions

Title and purpose of this initiative: ARPA Funding (REC)

Department: Race and Equity

What are the racial and equity impacts?

Families continue to struggle in the United States grappling with housing, food and housing insecurity, transportation, and childcare. Food and housing insecurity, transportation, and childcare needs disproportionately affect people from racial and ethnic minority and socioeconomically disadvantaged populations. Black/African American households and Hispanic/Latino households are more likely to be food insecure than White households. Food Accessibility, Insecurity and Health Outcomes \(nih.gov\). In the United States, the struggle to find affordable housing is a pervasive crisis, with millions of low-income individuals and families feeling the weight of rising rent prices. Nearly 20 million Americans who rent—almost half of all renters—are now burdened by housing costs, many for the first time ever. Who is or will experience community burden?

Those who may not qualify for the program may feel burdened. Also, those families who need funding however the resources are depleted.

Who is or will experience community benefit?

The intended outcome focuses on “chipping away” at closing the gap of disparities in the lives of some Carrboro families who qualify for the assistance. Those families most in need are often BIPOC and socioeconomically disadvantaged populations.

What are the root causes of inequity?

Food and housing insecurity, transportation and childcare needs disproportionately affect people from racial and ethnic minority and socioeconomically disadvantaged populations. Black/African American households and Hispanic/Latino households are more likely to be food insecure than White households. This is due to red lining, gentrification, and the core issue of the lack of potential in building and sustaining generational wealth.

What might be the unintended consequences of this action or strategy?

Unintended consequences include not enough funding available to help all community members in need. The dollar amount allocated helps however more is essential for families to achieve stability. Hopefully the administrative requirements and process will not create barriers.

How is your department planning to mitigate any burdens, inequities, and unintended consequences?

By considering additional funding or methods to lessen the burden of families in need. This will help reach further community members and address financial unintentional consequences. This program will also serve as a pilot project for future community initiatives.
