I checked No. So this does not apply.

After completing two full terms, a member must take off one year before applying for re-appointment to the advisory board. However, a board member may apply to serve on another advisory board if he/she desires. The Board of Aldermen may make exceptions to this rule under the following circumstances: 1. To retain diversity on an advisory board; 2. To provide continuity in oversight of a major, on-going project; 3. To keep a member who provides expertise otherwise unavailable on an advisory board (e.g., an engineer on the Planning Board or Board of Adjustment); or 4. A lack of qualified applicants.

Experience to Aid You in Working on Advisory Boards

Founded social enterprise which entailed initiating and collaborating with a board of directors as well as an advisory board; served on the DeKalb County Impact Fee advisory board while living in Georgia. Current position at UNC School of Government offers exposure and education regarding various advisory boards in local and state government.

Reasons You Wish to be Appointed

I have developed a keen interest in economic sustainability over the past several years and would like to contribute the information and insights I have gained to support the Town of Carrboro. Serving on the Economic Sustainability Advisory Committee would also be an excellent opportunity for me to increase the breadth and depth of my knowledge in this regard - and to collaborate with individuals in my community that I may never have the opportunity to do so otherwise.
