REPORT ON POSSIBLE 10-YEAR ANNUAL CLIMATE EMERGENCY BUDGET PROPOSAL

The purpose of this item was to provide a report on a possible 10-year Annual Climate Emergency Budget Proposal for implementing updated climate action plan goals.

Laura Janway, Environmental Planner, presented the staff report on this agenda item.

Unidentified members of Extinction Rebellion’s Red Rebels approached the Council and handed them roses.

Olive Russell, resident of 105 Fidelity Street, read a quote from the Secretary General of the United Nations which called for “rapid and ambitious” action. She also raised the issue of idling vehicles, including buses, as well as leaf blowers. She suggested that the Town should set an example by not using leaf blowers on its property.

Piper Honnigman, resident of 1215 Hillsboro Road, made a statement to the Council calling for action on climate change. She also addressed parking and felt that the Town should reframe its thinking on this issue.

Zacharia Claypool White, resident of 731 Lacock Road, called for radical action on climate. He suggested that spending ten million dollars for offices above the library is not the actions of a town that is committed to combatting climate change. He noted the recent fires in Australia and the Amazon. He asked the Council what they plan to do in response to climate change.

Sonia Desai, resident of 135 Kingsbury Drive, asked that the Town budget include funding for paying organizers. She felt it was important to focus on the causes of the climate crisis, not just the symptoms.

Jan Burger, resident of 726 Bynum Road in Pittsboro and former resident of Carrboro, noted that people and governments need to think about a future that was not planned for, he asked the Council to take a sharp turn from how things are usually done, and serve as an example for other towns in North Carolina.

Lauren Nyland, resident of 241 Stable Road, said the Town should treat the climate crisis as if it is an emergency and said residents would support the Town in its efforts.

Sally Robertson, resident of 113 Circadian Way, said the Town needs to move beyond a “business as usual” concept. She felt the proposed climate emergency budget was a good start. She felt that greenways might not be a good expenditure of funds. She noted that advocacy is a zero-cost means of bringing about change and asked that the Council interact with utilities to advocate for changes in their processes to help fight climate change.

Marin Carumet (spelling of last name uncertain), liaison for the Red Rebels, addressed the Board. She called for action against climate change.

Paul Van Ness, resident of 1215 Hillsborough Road, expressed support for the Town’s climate action plan. He suggested that the Town make flags that could be used as cost-effective ways of generating action on climate change. He also spoke about the recently opened Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Park and felt that it did not adequately represent Dr. King.

Terri Buckner, local resident, felt that OWASA should be included in the climate inventory. She also addressed trash collection and felt that it could be changed to every other week. She said this would be good for both the budget and the climate.

A motion was made by Council Member Slade, seconded by Council Member Foushee, that the following resolution be approved:

A RESOLUTION RECEIVING A 10-YEAR CLIMATE EMERGENCY BUDGET

WHEREAS, the Town Council passed a Resolution on June 25th, 2019 Regarding Climate Action Goals and Budget Plan; and

WHEREAS, the Resolution directed the Town Manger to charge staff to develop a 10-year annual climate emergency budget proposal for implementing updated climate action plan goals and related activities and projects for consideration by the Carrboro Town Council beginning in the FY 2020-21 budget cycle, and annually thereafter; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Carrboro Town Council that the Council receives the attached documents and advise staff on further budgetary action.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Carrboro Town Council provides the following direction:

- The 10 year emergency climate budget will be updated to clarify which items typically have State and Federal matches or not.
- The 10 year emergency climate budget will be updated to reflect the cost savings that some items may generate.

This the 21st day of January in 2020.

MOTION WAS MADE BY COUNCIL MEMBER SLADE, SECONDED BY COUNCIL MEMBER SEILS, THAT AT THE UPCOMING BUDGET WORK SESSION, STAFF WILL PROVIDE A CURRENT YEAR BUDGET WHICH INCLUDES THE YEARLY SHARE OF FUNDS REQUIRED TO MEET THE GOALS OF THE 10-YEAR CLIMATE EMERGENCY BUDGET WITH THE ASSUMPTION THAT 80% MATCHING FUNDS WILL BE RECEIVED FROM STATE AND FEDERAL SOURCES.
