INFORMATION: In October of 2014, the Board considered and adopted text amendments to the Land Use Ordinance (LUO) relating to the Board of Adjustment. The amendments were initiated by staff to ensure the Town's compliance with changes to North Carolina State Statutes relating to the same topics.

In November of 2014, staff from the School of Government at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, shared information with local zoning officials about a similar review spearheaded by the North Carolina Bar Association to reorganize, clarify and modernize statutes relating to local planning and development regulations.

handing some development opportunities.

Both conditional use and conditional zoning mechanisms allow rezonings to occur under very specific conditions where they may otherwise not be appropriate. However, unlike conditional use zoning where the rezoning and associated conditional use permit are considered simultaneously following quasi-judicial proceedings, conditional zoning follows a legislative process. Conditions are agreed to by both property owner and local government and are linked to the rezoning. The petitioner submits some sort of exhibit or site plan, and the actual permit comes later as subsequent step.

The LUO provides for staff to initiate an amendment if it believes that the proposed amendment has significant merit and would benefit the general public interest. Article IX, Zoning Districts and Zoning Map, provides for conditional use zoning for almost all of the existing general use districts but only provides for conditional zoning for two districts, B-1(G) and B-2. A draft ordinance has been prepared that, if adopted, would authorize the creation of a conditional district that would correspond to almost all of the Town's general zoning districts. The Board of Aldermen must receive public comment before adopting amendments to the LUO. Orange County and Planning Board review are also needed.

FISCAL & STAFF IMPACT: Public hearings involve staff and public notice costs associated with advisory board and Board of Aldermen review.

RECOMMENDATION: Staff recommends that the Board of Aldermen consider the attached resolution, setting a public hearing for June 23, 2015 and referring the proposed amendment to Orange County, the Planning Board.
